I have been drawing pictures ever since I could remember. I became freelance after working for a design office.
 I describe women living full of life or having delicate sensibilities.
 At present I'm engaged in creating main graphics and character designs for magazines, books, TV and shops.

Illustrator resident in Osaka.I know neither what is only beautiful nor what is only ugly.Because everything has its opposite in this beautiful world.Light vs. shadow, life vs. death, love vs. hatred and men vs. women.I think, with love and pain, that everything including human beings cannot exist without being in a pair.That is why my works have a little romance and a little pain.I love to draw illustrations and I do my best every day.
